Workshop Description:
Various approaches to care coordination will be explored in this session including techniques of Motivational Interviewing and a special focus on social determinants of health.

Children, Trauma and Recovery: Clinical Interventions with Children

Friday, November 18
9:00 am – 12:00 pm
3 Continuing Education contact hours for licensed social workers

Presenter: Kathleen Monahan, D.S.W., LCSW

Workshop Description:
Children are exposed to and experience a wide variety of traumatic events. We now understand that children can suffer devastating consequences by experiencing and/or witnessing traumatic events, both in the short-term and well into adulthood. Major advances in our understanding of how trauma impacts children has improved and advanced treatment interventions. This workshop will discuss these interventions.

Cost: $60
$50 (current Field Instructors, Alumni of SSW or SBU employees)

Clinical Skills Working with TGNC Children and Youth

Monday, January 23, 2017
9:00 am – 1:00 pm
4 Continuing Education contact hours for licensed social workers

Workshop Description:
Research has illuminated the fact that the two most prominent times in a TGNC person’s life where gender dysphoria arises is 3-5 years old and at puberty. When confronted by a gender variant child, a parent may be caught very much off guard, with no ability to rehearse the best response to such an unanticipated circumstance. In addition, for a parent, it may feel like a loss of the daughter or son to whom they became so bonded. Moreover, some families are aware of their child’s gender dysphoria in early childhood while others are surprised to learn about it when their child is in their teens. In this workshop we will work to help create a safe and supportive environment for TGNC individuals and their families to grow and thrive in life.

Clinical Skills Working with TGNC: Coming Out Later in Life

Spring 2017 date TBA
4 Continuing Education contact hours for licensed social workers

Workshop Description:
Much of the current research has focused on gender-nonconforming children or on transsexuals seeking gender confirmation surgery (GCS). Recent research has noted that many male-to-female identified persons are contemplating gender transitions in their later years. This workshop will address the importance of working with elder TGNC individuals and will present specific modalities in working with the TGNC Elders.

Continuous Quality Improvement in Care Coordination

January 7, 2017
10:00 am – 1:00 pm
3 Continuing Education contact hours for licensed social workers

Workshop Description:
In the final session of this course, we will explore CQI programs that Social Workers and Care Managers can develop and monitor. A detailed look at how Design Thinking methodology can be used to solve patient concerns will also be taught.

Note: Students that have taken at least 2 other sessions are permitted to take this final session. This topic will be interactive and involve student case examples for exploration.

Cost per session:
$60
$50 (current Field Instructors, Alumni of SSW or SBU employees)

Accessing the Inner World of Child Victims of Sex Abuse: Innovative Treatment Approaches Through Creative Expression

Friday, September 30
9:00 am – 12:00 pm
3 Continuing Education contact hours for licensed social workers

Presenters:
Kathryn Mertz, MS, LCSW
Adjunct Instructor, School of Social Work, Adelphi University

Rev. Diane Monks, LMSW, Senior Education Specialist, Child Welfare Training Program
School of Social Welfare, Stony Brook University

Workshop Description:
This workshop will offer a combination of experiential and didactic components. Participants will be introduced to innovative approaches (e.g., energy psychology, movement, sound) to working with creative expression in the treatment of child sexual abuse. Techniques demonstrated will be transferrable to the practitioners’ work with clients. Participants will engage in activities specifically designed to elicit unconscious information held within the inner world of children. This workshop will provide skills and modalities in helping child victims heal from the trauma of sexual abuse.

Cost:
$60
$50 (current Field Instructors, Alumni of SSW or SBU employees)
What Ought To Be: Cultural Proficiency, and Trans Care Across the Lifespan: Trans 101, Client Engagement, and CBT

Mondays:
October 24, January 23, 2017, (Spring 2017 date TBA)
9:00 am – 1:00 pm

4 Continuing Education contact hours per session
for licensed social workers

Presenter:
Donna Riley, Ph.D, LCSW-R
Adjunct Instructor, School of Social Welfare, Stony Brook University; Clinician, The Freedman Center for Clinical Social Work

Series Overview:
Transgender and Gender Non-Conforming (TGNC) people are those who have a gender identity that is not fully aligned with their sex assigned at birth. They often face widespread discrimination and mistreatment within the healthcare system because providers may lack adequate training. Much of the existing information regarding TGNC has been extrapolated from studies of people who are lesbians, gay and bisexuals (LGB).

Clinical and Cultural Proficiency in Working with Transgender Non-Conforming (TGNC) Individuals

Monday, October 24
9:00 am - 1:00 pm

4 Continuing Education contact hours for licensed social workers

Workshop Description:
This training will educate health and human service professionals how to be TGNC Culturally Proficient, and the continuum of diversity of the TGNC Community. Additionally, this training will present specific modalities in working with TGNC individuals.

Cost per session:
$80
$70 (current Field Instructors, Alumni of SSW or SBU employees)
