Survivors of Abandonment Trauma: Techniques for Emotional Recovery and Behavioral Change
Friday, May 8, 2020
10:00 am – 3:00 pm
5 Continuing Education contact hours for NYS licensed social workers
Location: Long Island State Veterans Home at Stony Brook University, 100 Patriots Road, Stony Brook
Instructor: Susan M. Anderson, LCSW
Psychotherapist; Founder, Abandonment Recovery Movement
Workshop Description: In this seminar we define and explore post traumatic stress disorder, identifying key features of its impact in adult lives. We examine abandonment’s underpinning of primal fear which is universal to the human condition. As clinicians we know that emotional insight, no matter how keen, is insufficient to change deeply entrenched self-defeating patterns, especially those stemming from past or present abandon ment traumas. We examine techniques to help our clients effectively deal with shame, abandonment fear, and insecurity, and learn tools that empower them to overcome their most persistent post-traumatic patterns of self-sabotage.
Cost: $90
$80 (current Field Instructors, alumni of SSW or SBU employees)

Understanding Gender Identity: TGNC Youth and Sex Education
Friday, June 5, 2020

Instructor: Donna B. Riley, PhD, LCSW-R
Adjunct Instructor, School of Social Welfare; Clinician
Workshop Description: Today’s youth often have various gender identities outside of the social construct of the binary gender structure. The transgender, non-binary, queer community is vastly underserved when it comes to sex education. In this workshop we will discuss sex education that is comprehensive and inclusive. Topics will include affirming language, terminology and resources for reproductive and sexual health that can support all students in minimizing risks and building healthy relationships. We will also share best practices to improve sex education for LGBTQ students, share real-life stories, relevant data, and effective practices around LGBTQ inclusion in schools.
Cost: $100
