Dear Class of 2020,

The School of Social Welfare will recognize your graduation with a virtual yearbook that will debut on Wednesday, May 20 at 5:30 p.m. on our website. The yearbook will remain open for an indefinite period of time so that you and your family and friends can view it at your convenience. We still plan on holding an in-person celebration at a later date.

While this celebration will look different than what we all had hoped, the cause for celebration is possibly more meaningful than ever before! We are exceptionally proud of you and your contributions to the SSW profession and the broader community.

The virtual yearbook would not be possible without the many submissions and contributions of our graduates and the heartfelt efforts of the SSW staff and faculty.

Please join us in browsing the virtual yearbook when it opens on Wednesday, May 20 at 5:30 p.m. at:

Congratulations, Class of 2020!

Sincerely,
